The Meritage Resort and Spa Unveils $25 Million Reimagination

The Meritage Resort and Spa proudly unveiled a $25 million reimagination this April, debuting 322 transformed guest rooms, renovated amenities, lobby and bar area, an updated bowling lounge, a brand new steakhouse and elevated bubbly tasting room. Renowned as a premier, one-stop shop for everything Napa, the now 467-room resort is proud to introduce guests to the next evolution of The Meritage experience: a gateway to the best of California Wine Country. The nine-acre retreat is now home to multiple on-site tasting rooms, a locally sourced artisanal market, and a state-of-the-art cooking center all housed in an eclectic Food & Wine Village. The campus features six dining options, a bowling alley, two pools and wellness centers, and the 22,000-square-foot Spa Terra, nestled in an Estate Cave beneath the property's own Trinitas vineyard. With 80,000 combined square feet of venue space, ranging from the region's largest indoor ballroom to a hillside garden, as well as rich programming and a schedule full of classes, concerts, and events, the resort is a wine country playground and a destination in itself. Made possible by the Busch Family and Pacific Hospitality Group's multi-million dollar investment, the overall renovation project was inspired by the acres of land on which the property is set and the rolling golden hills that surround it.

Silverado Resort Completes Renovation of Meeting Space

Silverado Resort, an iconic landmark resort in the heart of classic Napa Valley wine country, has put the finishing touches on the $1.5 million renovation of 17,000 square feet of meeting and event space encompassing the ballroom, conference and meeting rooms and pre-function areas. This comes on the heels of a refresh of the resort's indoor and alfresco signature restaurant, The Grill, with a bright look, inspired new menus and a verdant chef's garden. Other recent upgrades include new golf carts with GPS, Bluetooth music and tech to let golfers order food and drink while playing the resort's two championship courses. For tennis enthusiasts, the resort boasts nine newly-refinished tennis courts alongside the recent addition of three state-of-the-art pickleball courts. New guestrooms are coming later this year.

EMERYVILLE

Pippal Launches Innovative Cocktail Program

Pippal, one of San Francisco's newest, innovative cocktail programs, tells the rich story of India's heritage landmarks through each beverage. The new, regional Indian concept in Emeryville celebrates India as seen through the eyes of the team's creative lead bartender, Izler Thomas. Every cocktail on the menu pays homage to a specific heritage property in India and incorporates flavor profiles that reflect the ingredients found in that region. From the majestic Taj Mahal to the serene backwaters of Kerala, every cocktail tells a story inspired by the historical charm of these architectural wonders, creating a sensory experience that transcends the ordinary.

LOS ANGELES

The Bar Debuts at Short Stories Hotel

The Fairfax neighborhood welcomed The Bar at Short Stories Hotel, an elevated lounge & bar concept offering a cocktail-forward experience. Nestled in Short Stories Hotel's central courtyard oasis, the lounge evokes a secret garden sanctuary with European touches of Italian marble as well as a classic stone fountain and is heavily landscaped with lush vegetation under a canopy of African Sumac trees. Introducing an innovative approach to mixology culture with recipes that are prepared using contemporary techniques, the craft cocktails feature unexpected pairings that are also creative and playful. The wine list spotlights a succinct yet broad collection of old and new world labels, with a strong focus on California winemaking. Complementing the beverage menu, the culinary selection highlights classic American fare, boasting familiar favorites and refined small plates, with an emphasis on shareable dining.

SOLVANG

New Restaurant Openings in Solvang from Two Local Chefs

Chef Budi Kazali, former chef and owner of the beloved Ballard Inn, will return to the kitchen in his forthcoming restaurant concept located in the longtime Succulent Café space on Solvang's Mission Drive. Similar to The Gathering Table, his last restaurant at the Ballard Inn, the restaurant aims to open in the spring of 2024 with menu items of mixed cuisines meant for convivial sharing, most with an Asian cuisine-inspired influence. Named in honor of Chef Cullen Campbell's former Phoenix, AZ hospitality concepts, "Crudo" restaurant and bar will open this spring directly across from Solvang's Alisal windmill. Occupying the first floor of a two-story venue, Crudo will be an intimate bar with a regionally-sourced, raw fish-focused menu inspired by the Italian 'crudo' preparations of raw ingredients. Crudo will later be joined by a sister sushi and izakayastyle restaurant.

SAN FRANCISCO

120 Years of Timeless Elegance at the Westin St. Francis

The Westin St. Francis, a beloved landmark in the heart of San Francisco, is celebrating its 120th anniversary in March, marking over a century of exceptional hospitality and enduring sophistication. As part of the anniversary celebration, The Westin St. Francis will unveil the Paris of the West Historical Museum, showcasing the hotel's illustrious history and its role in shaping the cultural landscape of San Francisco. Visitors can immerse themselves in the hotel's heritage and discover iconic artifacts, including the famous coin washing machine. For the first time ever, guests and visitors will have the unique opportunity to see the hotel's famous coin washing machine in action. In honor of the 120th anniversary, the hotel has relocated this historic machine from the basement to the new Paris of the West Historical Museum.
